

Corporate and Sponsor Relations

I-117

In order to provide continuity and consistency, it shall be the exclusive responsibility of the International Office staff, to maintain appropriate corporate contact and relations with sponsors. Sponsorships and all matters related to such sponsorships (e.g. television, advertising, signage, activities, speeches and corporate placement and participation within OI events), once contractually approved by and in concert with the President and International Board of Directors, shall be the responsibility of the Executive Director and International Office staff.
